

< Back to Press Releases

5 million devices within three years and has been given 200k in business loans - half from Scottish Enterprise and the rest from Bank of Scotland

Vortis Technologies

Location: Glasgow

What it does: Makes mini antennae for mobile phones

Brief History: American businessman, James Johnson, is using Glasgow as the European base for his company. It has designed a special antenna to fit to mobile phones which reduces interference for users who wear hearing aids. He aims to sell

SCOTLAND'S TECHNOLOGY HOPEFULS

Who's ready to take the next big bite

Just who are the ones to watch in technology? Mairdair Northrop profiles some of Scotland's top hot techs which he thinks have the potential to grow into substantial players

Home
Message from the President
Faq
Order Now

Home | Customers | Employees | Suppliers | Developers | Partners | Contact
Copyright ©2002 All Rights Reserved